

Ontario Education Assessment Review: Conversations for Improvement

Join the province-wide conversation about how best to improve Ontario's approaches to classroom assessments, large-scale provincial assessments including Education Quality and Accountability Office (EQAO) assessments, and Ontario's participation in pan-Canadian and international assessment programs.

Your feedback will help inform a report to be submitted by Spring 2018 to the Premier and Minister of Education providing actionable advice for student assessments in Ontario.

You can participate in any of the following ways to share your input:

Online

Complete the online survey; <http://ontariolearningprovince.ca/participate>

Provide feedback on Twitter using hashtag; #OntEdAssessment

Online Webcast December 13, 2017; <http://ontariolearningprovince.ca/participate>

Public Engagement Sessions

A series of in-person public engagement sessions will be held across the province.

Advance registration is not required, but does help us with planning and preparations (Register at; <http://ontariolearningprovince.ca/participate>). During registration, there will be an opportunity to advise of any accommodation needs that will support your ability to fully participate in the engagement session in your region.

Barrie November 27, 2017 - Event location: Liberty North Event Centre

Open House: 6:00-6:30 p.m. , Roundtable Session: 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Toronto December 8, 2017 - Event location: Daniels Spectrum

Open House: 6:00-6:30 p.m. , Roundtable Session: 6:30-8:30 p.m.

In Writing

Submit written comments or conversation reports via email to educationassessment@ontario.ca or by post mail to:

Argyle Public Relationships

Ashley O'Connor

175 Bloor Street East

South Tower, Suite 1007

Toronto, ON M4W 3R8

To ensure your feedback can be considered for the final report, please provide all submissions and feedback by Friday, December 15, 2017.